STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Like the Vermont monument adjacent to it, the significance of the Pennsylvania Monument is two fold. The monument marks the significant contribution of the Pennsylvania troops under General Lew Wallace in his efforts to slow the approach of Gen. Jubal Early toward Washington in the Battle of the Monocacy on July 9, 1864. The monument also shows interest in the national heritage by local, state and national organizations during the time period 1900-1920.

The land for the monument was purchased for $100 by the Commonwealth of Pa. from Kate Cavanaugh.

On September 14, 1908 according to the deed by Act of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania, PL 605 approved June 13, 1907 the Monocacy Monument Commission consisting of William Lanius, Robert Cornwell and William Coppelberger was appointed "to select and purchase a suitable lot of land on the battlefield of Monocacy and to erect thereon a Monument".¹
